THE METROPOLITAN OPERA ERIC AND DOMINIQUE LAFFONT COMPETITION

The Met's Laffont Competition—previously known as the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions—is designed to discover promising young opera singers and assist in the development of their careers, and is sponsored by hundreds of donors and volunteers from across the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Some of today's greatest singers got their starts in the competition, including Renée Fleming, Susan Graham, Stephanie Blythe, Eric Owens, Lawrence Brownlee, Lisette Oropesa, Nadine Sierra, Jamie Barton, Michael Fabiano, Ryan Speedo Green, and Anthony Roth Costanzo.

The competition is grateful to its donors for prizes at the national level and to the Tobin Endowment for the Mrs. Edgar Tobin Award, given to each first-place region winner.

Support for this program is generously provided by the Charles H. Dyson Endowment Fund at the Metropolitan Opera.

SUPPORT OPERA'S FUTURE STARS

When you make a gift to support the Laffont Competition, you make a statement about your commitment to the future of opera and to helping expand our work of identifying opera's brightest rising stars. This unique initiative is possible thanks to the generous support we receive from valued friends like you.

Please text LAFFONT to 44321 or visit metopera.org/competitionsupport and make a gift to support the Laffont Competition today. Your contribution will make a truly meaningful difference.

Each singer will begin with an aria of his or her choice; the judges may then request additional arias from the list of selections prepared by that singer. Applause is encouraged.

Please turn off or silence devices with audible alarms or ringers (including cell phones) while in the auditorium and only enter or exit the auditorium between singers.

Audience Choice Award - Complete and return the ballot you received with your program to the marked boxes by the end of today's competition (please do so within 10 minutes of the completion of the final singer). A monetary award will be given to the singer who receives the most votes.

Audience members are invited to join the competitors for light refreshments in Thompson Chamber Music Hall while the judges deliberate. The announcement winner(s) and the presentation of awards will take place in the reception space directly following the completion of the judges' deliberations.

OFFICIAL PIANIST

Carol Anderson is in her twentieth season as principal coach for Utah Symphony I Utah Opera, while spending her summers on the music staff of The Santa Fe Opera. She is regularly engaged as official accompanist for the Metropolitan Opera Laffont Competition, for the Utah District (since 2006), the Southeast Region in Atlanta, the Florida District, and the Arizona District. Dr. Anderson offers the immensely popular "Prelude Talks" before every Utah Opera performance, and is a cohost of USUO's Ghostlight podcast, with Grand Teton Music Festival's Jeff Counts.

Dr. Anderson's professional opera coaching career was launched by her two seasons as apprentice coach in the prestigious Houston Grand Opera Studio. Previous to her appointment in Utah, she served as chorus master and musical administrator for the Orlando Opera, where she made her conducting debut leading performances of Amahl and the Night Visitors. Mentorship and development of operatic artists has long been a focus. She is often asked to present master classes and offer individual consultations to opera and voice students at music schools across the country. Dr. Anderson has also presented on opera coaching topics at CollabFest at University of Southern California and was a panelist on OPERA America's webinar "Behind the Table: Demystifying the Opera Audition."

Daniel Biaggi is an award winning, internationally connected opera executive and producer. After 15+ years in opera leadership, Daniel founded Biaggi Arts Consulting in 2019 to partner with performing arts organizations and individual artists to help them reach their respective goals. In that capacity, he has served as Interim Artistic Director of Portland Opera, was Artistic Advisor to the Atkins Young Artists Program at the Mariinsky Theater in St. Petersburg, Russia, and helped create a fundraising and engagement expansion strategy for Teatro Grattacielo. He concurrently is General Manager for Drax Productions, a boutique film and TV production company in New York. With Drax Productions, he has executive produced arts projects including 'After/Glow', a cinematic adaptation of Schumann's Dichterliebe, filmed by Ryan McKinny and Helio Arts, and starring John Holiday as singer/pianist/actor with poetry by Marc Bahmuti Joseph. He also produced staged readings of a new play CONTROL, and is currently developing a TV documentary series with Kevin Newbury about the 'behind the scenes' of the opera world among other film/TV projects.

Previously, Daniel was General Director and Director of Artistic Operations at Palm Beach Opera for 15 years, where he instituted an artistic, organizational, and financial turnaround. Highlights included the company's first world premiere of an American Opera, Enemies, A Love Story; over 70 large scale productions featuring internationally acclaimed soloists and creative teams; a three-tiered approach to Young Artist Training; as well as the expansion of a wide range of community engagement and education programs throughout Palm Beach County. Prior to PBO, he worked as Associate Director at Guy Barzilay International Artists Management; was a faculty member at Manhattan School of Music, Mannes College of Music, and Sarah Lawrence College. He has given master classes and performance seminars at the Juilliard School of Music as well as the Chautauqua Voice Institute; and worked as teaching artist, lecturer, and performer for the Metropolitan Opera Guild.

Daniel is a frequent vocal competition judge, including for the Metropolitan Opera Laffont Competition, the Richard Tucker Music Foundation, and the Jensen Foundation, among others. He has served on the Board of OPERA America; was Chair of the Cultural Executive Committee of the Cultural Council of the Palm Beaches; and received the Lifetime Achievement Award for Leadership and Artistic Excellence of the NSAL. Credentials include the Harvard Business School's Executive Education Program "Strategic Perspectives in Nonprofit Management"; certification as Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP, The American College of Financial Services); a MM in Vocal Performance (Manhattan School of Music), a BM (San Francisco Conservatory of Music), and a Certificate of Musicology (University of Berne, Switzerland).

Ben Heppner is renowned worldwide for his portrayals in the dramatic tenor repertoire. His illustrious career has taken him to opera stages and concert halls around the world. He is acclaimed for the beauty of his voice, incisive musicianship, and his generosity with his audience. His performances on the opera stage, in concert with the world's leading orchestras, in the most prestigious recital venues, and in recordings have set new standards in his demanding repertoire.

Heppner studied music at the University of British Columbia. He first gained national attention in 1979 as the winner of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Talent Festival. In December 1998, CBC Television's Something Special featured Ben Heppner in an hour-long portrait of the artist. He is a 1988 winner of the Metropolitan Opera auditions and received Grammy® Awards in 1998 for his recording of Die Meistersinger on London/Decca records and in 2001 for his recording of Les Troyens with the London Symphony Orchestra on LSOLive. Ben Heppner is a Companion of the Order of Canada.

Ben Heppner and his wife, Karen, live in Toronto. He has three grown children and five of the most adorable, witty and intelligent grandchildren the world has ever seen. Heppner loves drinking coffee on the deck and touring the countryside on his motorcycle.

Georgian pianist Nino Sanikidze has held the position of a Head Coach for the Domingo-Colburn-Stein Young Artist Program at Los Angeles Opera since the program's inception in 2006. In addition to her duties with the Young Artist Program, she often serves on LAO Music staff as a pianist and a prompter, working closely with the LAO Music Director James Conlon.

Outside of LA Opera, she has been engaged with such companies as Teatro Real in Madrid, Royal Opera House Muscat, Teatro Municipal di Santiago, Washington National Opera, and Cleveland Opera. A frequent collaborator with the Broad Stage in Santa Monica, her notable concert appearances include a recital with tenor Marcelo Alvarez and a recital with mezzo-soprano Elina Garanca. In addition, she has performed in a recital with world-renowned guitarist Angel Romero at Palm Springs Life Festival.

Dr. Sanikidze often serves on judging panels for numerous vocal competitions. A sought-after clinician, she has been a principal guest coach for the USC Thornton School of Music and has conducted masterclasses at multiple universities and festivals Since 2014 she is a Faculty Artist of Lehrer Vocal Institute at the Music Academy of the West and in 2022 joined the Opera Coaching Faculty at UCLA.

Dr. Sanikidze is the recipient of numerous honors, including the Marilyn Horne Foundation Award for Excellence in Vocal Accompanying. She received her Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Maryland, College Park, and is an alumna of the Domingo-Cafritz Young Artist Program at Washington National Opera, as well as the Music Academy of the West, Aspen Opera Center, Cleveland Art Song Festival, and SongFest.

Donations to the Utah District, Metropolitan Opera Laffont Competition provide the prize monies for award winners and support the costs incurred in hosting this round of the competition. It is important to note that although the Utah District is officially sanctioned by The Metropolitan Opera and feeds the national competition finals, it does not receive funding from the national office. Thus, we must raise all needed funds for our annual Utah District Competition, which we accomplish through the generosity of local businesses and individuals.

Thank you to the following generous donors whose contributions made our November 12, 2022 competition possible.
