THE METROPOLITAN OPERA ERIC AND DOMINIQUE LAFFONT COMPETITION

The Met's Laffont Competition—previously known as the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions—is designed to discover promising young opera singers and assist in the development of their careers and is sponsored by hundreds of donors and volunteers from across the United States, Canada, Mexico, and South America. Some of today's greatest singers got their starts in the competition, including Jamie Barton, Stephanie Blythe, Lawrence Brownlee, Anthony Roth Costanzo, Emily D'Angelo, Michael Fabiano, Renée Fleming, Susan Graham, Ryan Speedo Green, Lisette Oropesa, Eric Owens, and Nadine Sierra.

The Competition is grateful to its donors for prizes at the national level and to the Tobin Endowment for the Mrs. Edgar Tobin Award, given to each first-place region winner.

Support for this program is generously provided by the Charles H. Dyson Endowment Fund at the Metropolitan Opera.

SUPPORT OPERA'S FUTURE STARS

When you make a gift to support the Laffont Competition, you make a statement about your commitment to the future of opera and to helping expand our work of identifying opera's brightest rising stars. This unique initiative is possible thanks to the generous support that we receive from valued friends like you.

Please text LAFFONT to 44321 or visit metopera.org/competitionsupport and make a gift to support the Laffont Competition today. Your contribution will make a truly meaningful difference.

ADVISORY BOARD

Celena Shafer

Brian Stucki

Each singer will begin with an aria of their choice; the judges may then request additional arias from the list of repertoire prepared by that singer. Applause is encouraged.

Please turn off or silence devices with audible alarms or ringers (including cell phones) while in the auditorium and only enter or exit the auditorium between singers.

Complete and return the Audience Choice Award ballot you received with your program to the marked boxes by the end of today's competition (please do so within 10 minutes of the completed audition of the final singer). A monetary award will be given to the singer who receives the most votes.

Audience members are invited to join the competitors for light refreshments in Thompson Chamber Music Hall while the judges deliberate. The announcement of winners will take place in the reception space directly following the completion of the judges' deliberations.

Donations to the Utah District Metropolitan Opera Laffont Competition provide the prize monies for award winners and support the costs incurred in hosting this round of the competition. It is important to note that although the Utah District is officially sanctioned by The Metropolitan Opera and feeds the national competition finals, it must raise 100% of needed funds for our annual Utah District Competition, which we accomplish through the generosity of local businesses and individuals. Please visit www.utahmoncauditions.org to donate directly to the Utah District Competition.

OFFICIAL PIANIST

Dr. Carol AndersonOfficial Pianist

Dr. Carol Anderson joined the University of Utah School of Music faculty as professor of diction, vocal repertoire, and vocal collaboration, following 22 seasons as Principal Coach with Utah Symphony I Utah Opera (USUO). Since 2002, she has also been an integral member of the music staff at The Santa Fe Opera, widely regarded as the nation's leading summer opera festival.

Renowned for her work as a master teacher and clinician, Dr. Anderson has led master classes across the country—both in person and virtually—and has served as a featured panelist for OPERA America, contributing to national conversations on audition preparation and institutional best practices. Her passion for audience engagement is evident in her role as presenter of Utah Opera's acclaimed Preludes and as a lecturer for The Santa Fe Opera's Prelude Dinners.

Prior to her tenure with Utah Opera, Dr. Anderson served as Chorus Master and Music Administrator at Orlando Opera, where she also conducted performances of Amahl and the Night Visitors. She has held music staff positions with leading institutions including Houston Grand Opera, Los Angeles Opera, Seattle Opera, Sarasota Opera, Brevard Music Center, Nashville Opera, and Rice University's Shepherd School of Music. In addition, she completed two seasons as an apprentice coach with both the Houston Grand Opera Studio and the Aspen Opera Theater Center.

An active performer and advocate for underrepresented composers, Dr. Anderson recently collaborated with mezzo-soprano Katharine Goeldner in Silenced Voices: Music by Female Composers of the Holocaust, performed at the American Gothic Festival and for the Wagner Society of Santa Fe.

Originally from Houston, Texas, Dr. Anderson holds a Doctor of Musical Arts in Keyboard Collaborative Arts from the University of Southern California, Master of Music in Accompanying and Chamber Music from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, and Bachelor of Music in Church Music, Piano Emphasis, from Baylor University.

JUDGES

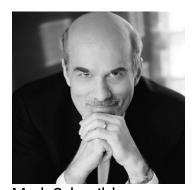

Beth Clayton Mezzo-Soprano Integrative Performance Coach

Mezzo-Soprano Beth Clayton led an active solo career for over twenty years, singing more than fifty leading roles with companies both in the U.S. and abroad. Particularly known for her interpretation of the title role of Carmen, she also created a number of roles in world premieres, including John Adams' Doctor Atomic, Thomas Adès' America, Howard Shore's The Fly, William Bolcom's A Wedding, Carlisle Floyd's Cold Sassy Tree, Deborah Drattell's Lilith, and Lembit Beecher's I have no stories to tell you. On the concert stage, she made appearances with leading orchestras ranging from the New York Philharmonic and the Cleveland Orchestra to The Israeli Philharmonic. Her discography includes the Grammy-nominated recording of The Glimmerglass Festival production of The Mines of Sulphur as well as Five Songs of Bernstein with The Minnesota Orchestra. She holds two bachelor's degrees in both Voice Performance and Music Education from Southern Methodist University, a Master of Music in Voice Performance from the Manhattan School of Music, and most recently a Master of Arts degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Antioch University. She currently combines her performance experience with the platform of total mental well-being in a private practice geared toward the specific needs of performing artists but also those in the LGBTQ community and beyond. Ms. Clayton was a Sullivan Award Winner and a 1995 finalist in the Metropolitan National Council Auditions (the precursor of the Laffont Competition) and has now become an adjudicator for the competition. She is an alumna of The Santa Fe Opera Apprentice Program and the Houston Opera Studio. She is a native of Arkansas and now resides primarily in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and secondarily in New York City.

Paul Hopper Senior Director, Artistic Planning LA Opera

Paul Hopper is LA Opera's Senior Director, Artistic Planning. His duties in Los Angeles include overseeing all casting for the company and serving as the artistic and strategic head of the company's Domingo-Colburn-Stein Young Artist Program. For the five seasons before, he was the Associate Artistic Administrator at The Metropolitan Opera, where he worked on the casting of over 200 performances annually, including the GRAMMY award-winning productions of Porgy and Bess, Akhnaten, Fire Shut up in My Bones, and Champion. Previously, he was the Assistant Artistic Director at Houston Grand Opera, where he assisted in long term artistic planning and casting, managed special artistic initiatives, and guided a variety of audiences in learning more about opera, including numerous events in support of the company's first Ring Cycle. As principal dramaturg for the company, he worked closely with composers and librettists in the commissioning and development of new works. He regularly serves on the juries for international vocal competitions, including the Metropolitan Opera's Eric and Dominique Laffont Competition, the Queen Sonja International Music Competition, the International Hans Gabor Belvedere Singing Competition, International Stanisław Moniuszko Vocal Competition, and the Tenor Viñas Competition. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music and the University of Houston, Paul is also Artistic Advisor for the Lakes Area Music Festival. He previously held positions at The Santa Fe Opera and ADA Artist Management.

Mark Schnaible
Bass-baritone
Voice teacher

During a performing career of over thirty-five years, Bass-baritone Mark Schnaible impressed audiences with his attention to musically- and dramatically-detailed interpretations of both the operatic and concert repertoires. A native of Moville, Iowa, he has enjoyed professional triumphs in Europe, the Middle East, and across the United States. He currently serves on the voice faculties of the Curtis Institute of Music, Manhattan School of Music, Brooklyn College Conservatory of Music, Metropolitan Opera-Lindemann, Washington National Opera-Cafritz, and maintains a private studio in New York City. The students from his voice studio have been chosen for numerous young artist programs and have distinguished themselves as winners of numerous competitions. His professional students currently sing at The Metropolitan Opera, Berlin Staatsoper, Berlin Deutsche Oper, Berlin Komische Oper, The Royal Opera House Covent Garden, English National Opera, Dresden Staatsoper, Barcelona Liceu, Israeli Opera, as well as numerous regional houses in the United States and Europe. Additionally, they are Grammy winners and have recorded for Chandos, Cezanne, Harmonia Mundi, and Deutsche Grammaphon.
